

Manager of Psychological Services

Full-time, 1 Year Contract

36.25 hours/week

Located in downtown Toronto, Surrey Place Centre is a community-based organization that provides a range of services including complex assessment, diagnostics, and treatment for people living with developmental disabilities. We are dedicated to helping every client reach their potential – at every stage in life. With highly skilled staff and dedicated teams, we're making a real difference through inspired leadership, service and research excellence, community collaboration and creative capacity building.

Job Summary:

The Toronto Partnership for Autism Services is currently recruiting for a Manager of Psychological Services. We are seeking an individual with demonstrated education and experience in the provision of a range of psychological services including diagnostic, developmental, and behavioural assessment, and intensive behavioural intervention.

You will provide psychological and behavioural assessments and clinical accountability for the development, delivery, and evaluation of Intensive Behavioural Intervention programs for children with a diagnosis at the severe end of the autism spectrum. You will also provide clinical supervision of staff, and work closely with Supervising Therapists employed by the TPAS community partnership.

You hold a Ph.D in psychology and are registered or eligible for registration with the College of Psychologists of Ontario. Regular and consistent attendance at work is required.
