

Psychologist

As a registered psychologist, why not contribute to the diagnosis and treatment of offenders, and the evaluation of treatment programs at the Ministry of Community Safety and Correctional Services' Algoma Treatment and Remand Centre in Sault Ste. Marie? As a psychologist, you will:

- plan, conduct and/or supervise individual or offender group therapy sessions
- assess offenders' risk, criminogenic needs and responsivity issues, and make recommendations for addressing targets
- develop and communicate individual therapeutic treatment programs compatible with institutional resources
- design and conduct evaluations of treatment and administrative programs
- develop, and evaluate effectiveness of treatment programs and recommend alternatives
- participate in multidiscipline team meetings to discuss significant behavioural developments and problems, treatment techniques and special requirements of offenders
- conduct research and ongoing program development
- prepare evaluative and clinical reports
- assist with staff training programs.

Location: 800 Great Northern Road, Sault Ste. Marie.

Qualifications:

Specialized skills:

- registered as a psychologist in the province of Ontario
- knowledge of science and practices of psychology, including a full range of psychotherapeutic and assessment techniques
- knowledge of forensic psychological theories, practices and procedures and provincial/federal statutes relating to the practice of psychology
- knowledge of program evaluation techniques
- knowledge of community resources/services and related regulations.

Planning, organization and supervisory skills:

- ability to plan, conduct and oversee the psychological diagnosis, treatment and rehabilitative approaches to assigned offenders
- organization, coordination and supervisory skills.

Communication skills:

- ability to share and exchange information with supervising psychologist, health care professionals, community agencies, offenders and their families
- maturity, tact, discretion and sensitivity when discussing diagnosis, treatment and progress with the offenders and when dealing with their families.

Other:

- research, analytical and problem-solving skills.

Salary range: $1,446 - $1,800 per week

Please apply online, only, at www.ontario.ca/careers, quoting Job ID 28737, by July 30, 2010. Faxes are not being accepted at this time. If you need employment accommodation, contact the Regional Recruitment Centre at 1-866-333-8491. Only those applicants selected for an interview will be contacted.

The Ontario Public Service is an equal opportunity employer. Accommodation will be provided in accordance with the Ontario Human Rights Code.