

RED DEER COLLEGE IS CURRENTLY ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS FOR:

PSYCHOLOGY INSTRUCTORS

Probationary Full Time (Leading to Continuous Appointment) x 2 positions*, 1 Sessional position

*subject to budget approval

DUTIES:

The successful candidates will instruct junior, as well as senior, courses in our collaborative BA program. A Ph.D. (or near completion) in psychology with an emphasis in cognitive neuroscience, cognition, sensation and perception, brain and behavior, or a related field is required. The ability to instruct statistics would be an asset. Candidates should also be able to demonstrate evidence of scholarly productivity and teaching excellence.

The Department has a strong University Transfer program and a collaborative BA degree with the University of Calgary. At Red Deer College, students experience high quality education enhanced by smaller class sizes and personalized learning.

Join a BA program with a strong commitment to undergraduate education and experience a collegial working environment.

The successful candidate will fulfill the following responsibilities:

- Teach and develop curriculum for junior and senior psychology courses
- Potential to supervise student research
- Demonstrate commitment to professional development and scholarship
- Contribute to the goals and activities of the Department, the College and the community

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Ph.D. (or near completion)
- Evidence of active research
- Post secondary teaching experience preferred
