

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

CPA- Sport & Exercise Psychology
Ottawa, Ontario, June 7-9, 2007

CPA CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS FOR THE 2007 CONVENTION NOW ON-LINE AT <http://www.cpa.ca/submit/>

The Convention Committee invites submissions to the Canadian Psychological Association 68th Annual Convention, Thursday June 7 to Saturday, June 9, 2007 at the Westin Ottawa, Ottawa, Ontario.

For the first time in over 12 years, the re-instated Sport and Exercise division of CPA (webpage: <http://www.cpa.ca/aboutcpa/cpasections/sportandexercisepsychologyinterestgroup/>) will be reviewing submissions for papers, posters, symposiums, and workshop presentations. The conference incorporates a variety of topics in related disciplines, such as social psychology, clinical/counselling, and health, to name a few, which are affiliated with the practice, teaching, and research of sport psychologists and kinesiologists. The Canadian Psychological Association's conference provides an exciting avenue for learning and the dissemination of information within sport/exercise psychology, and those affiliated areas in psychology.

ELIGIBILITY: CPA Members, Fellows, Student Affiliates, Non Student Affiliates and Non Members are eligible to present in the Convention programme. However, Non Student Affiliates and Non Members must be sponsored by a CPA Member or Fellow. All Presenters must register for the convention.

*Click on "Other" in the section category for submissions to be directed to the Sport & Exercise psychology group.

For more information on the conference, goto: <http://www.cpa.ca/convention/>

YOUR COMPLETED SUBMISSION MUST BE RECEIVED BY NOVEMBER 15 2006.

Hope to see you in Ottawa June 2007!!

Sincerely,

The Sport & Exercise Division of CPA
