

The Department of Psychology at the University of British Columbia (www.psych.ubc.ca) invites applications for a tenure-track position in Behavioural Neuroscience, which will begin 1 July 2011. This position is budgeted for the Assistant Professor level. Candidates must have a PhD before commencing the position.

We are seeking an individual who can add to the departmental strength in animal-based behavioural neuroscience. (Primate facilities are not available.) We are seeking individuals with strong research records appropriate to a research-oriented doctoral program, who have strong commitments to teaching and research supervision of undergraduate and graduate students. The successful candidate will be expected to maintain a program of effective teaching, graduate supervision, scholarly research leading to publication, and service.

The starting salary for the position will be commensurate with experience. The University of British Columbia hires based on merit and is committed to employment equity. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority. This position is subject to final budgetary approval.

Applicants for the position should fill out the information form and upload a PDF of their CV on <https://websec1.psych.ubc.ca/internal/faculty/jobappl/>. In addition applicants should email a PDF consisting of their curriculum vitae, samples of their scholarly work, statements of their research and teaching interests, evidence of their teaching abilities and effectiveness (course outlines, student evaluations, etc.), and should have PDFs of at least three signed confidential letters of recommendation emailed to: BNS2010@psych.ubc.ca

The closing date for applications is: 15 October 2010.
