

DALHOUSIE UNIVERSITY
COUNSELLING AND PSYCHOLOGICAL SERVICES

PSYCHOLOGIST

RESPONSIBILITIES: Primary responsibility is to provide individual and group psychological counselling to university students for a wide range of personal concerns. This position will include special responsibilities for providing individual and group counselling for international students and acting as a liaison with the International Centre for students and international student associations. Additional responsibilities include triage assessments, crisis management, and optional supervision of practicum students.

REQUIREMENTS: Masters or Ph.D. in Clinical or Counselling Psychology. Registered or eligible for registration with the N.S. Board of Examiners in Psychology. Experience providing psychological counselling to adults. Preference will be given to applicants with significant experience providing psychological counselling to international students from a diversity of countries and cultures. Experience at a university counselling center is preferred.

POSITION: This is a three year contract position, beginning September 1, 2014. Salary commensurate with training and experience. For background information on our services, consult:
<http://www.dal.ca/counselling>

HOW TO APPLY: Please send your application (cover letter, c.v., and three references) to:
Dr. David Mensink, Counselling and Psychological Services, Room 2101,
LeMarchant Mixed Use Building, Dalhousie University, PO Box 15000,
Halifax, N.S. B3H 4J2
(902) 494-2081. Email: david.mensink@dal.ca

Application deadline is July 18, 2014.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. Dalhousie University is an Employment Equity/Affirmative Action employer. The University encourages applications from qualified Aboriginal people, persons with a disability, racially visible persons and women.