

Psychologist

Are you interested in working in a highly diverse correctional treatment environment, drawing on your wide range of expertise as a Registered Psychologist? Consider this opportunity with the Ministry of Community Safety and Correctional Services to join the multidisciplinary team at the Ontario Correctional Institute.

Reporting to the Chief Psychologist, you will:

- provide psychological assessment and treatment services to offenders
- conduct individual and/or group treatment
- provide consultation/recommendations to both management and line staff concerning offenders
- evaluate institutional program effectiveness

Location: 109 McLaughlin Road South, Brampton, Ontario

What we are looking for:

Mandatory:

- you have a PhD in psychology from a university of recognized standing and current registration as a Psychologist with the College of Psychologists of Ontario

Please ensure that your covering letter indicates how your skills, knowledge and abilities match the job requirements. Please include your:

- demonstrated knowledge of science and practices of psychology, including psychotherapeutic and assessment techniques to plan, conduct and coordinate services
- the ability to evaluate psychological tests, apply complex techniques and provide consultation and advice on diagnosis and treatment of offenders
- knowledge of forensic psychological theories, practices and procedures

Communication and Interpersonal Skills:

- excellent communication skills to communicate information regarding assessment approaches, findings and treatment/rehabilitative activities
- proven interpersonal skills to maintain strong working relationships in a multidisciplinary setting
- discretion and sensitivity in discussing diagnosis, treatment and progress with offenders

Analytical and Research Skills:

- strong analytical skills to determine most appropriate diagnostic approaches from a range of alternatives
- the ability to participate in research projects

Computer Skills:

- the ability to input/retrieve offender data, prepare reports and maintain case documentation and statistics

You will be required to complete a criminal reference check (CPIC) prior to the commencement of employment.

You are registered as a Psychologist with the College of Psychologists of Ontario and possess a PhD in psychology from a university of recognized standing. Candidates who are not fully registered but who hold temporary registration may be considered on an underfill basis at the Psychometrist level.

As an employer, we offer a rewarding career with a comprehensive benefit and pension package along with opportunities for learning and growth.

Salary range: $1,475.32 – $1,836.58 per week

Please apply online, only, at www.ontario.ca/careers, quoting Job ID 38472, by September 14, 2011. Faxes are not being accepted at this time. If you need employment accommodation, please contact us at www.gojobs.gov.on.ca/ContactUs.aspx to provide your contact information. Recruitment Services staff will contact you within 48 hours. Only those applicants selected for an interview will be contacted.

The Ontario Public Service is an equal opportunity employer. Accommodation will be provided in accordance with the Ontario Human Rights Code.

www.ontario.ca/careers